Editor: Father Chris Kuhn, CSC, archivist, United States Province Archives, P.O. Box 568, Notre Dame, IN 46556-0568; ckuhn@nd.edu; (574) 631-5371. Proofreader: Mrs. Deborah Buzzard.

Brother John G. Doran was born on August 11, 1921, in Kansas city, Missouri. He was the fourth of five children of Simon F. Doran, a railroad clerk from Kansas City and Lamira H. Doran, a homemaker from Chenoa, Illinois. John was baptized at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Kansas City on August 26, 1921, and was confirmed at St. Francis Xavier Church in Kansas City on May 4, 1929.

John was a product of a Jesuit education. His parish school, St. Francis Xavier, was staffed by Jesuits. His high school, Rockhurst High School, was run by the Jesuits. After high school, he entered the Jesuit Rockhurst College, where he earned a Bachelor of the Science in Philosophy in 1942. John signed up for service in the U.S. Army. The Army made him a supply sergeant and asked him to do personnel interviews. He served for three and a half years until World War II ended.

John received an honorable discharge with a good conduct medal and several other ribbons and distinctions on February 3, 1946. John's father passed away just eight months before his discharge. John now had to decide what to do with the rest of his life. He said he had considered the religious life, but was not drawn to the Jesuits. On July 9, 1946, he made formal application to the Brothers of Holy Cross. John was approved for admission by Brother Donatus Schmitz.

On February 2, 1948, he made his first profession at St. Joseph Novitiate in Rolling Prairie, Indiana. He professed his perpetual vows on August 15, 1951, at Sacred Heart Church on the campus of Notre Dame. John earned a master's in English from the University of Notre Dame. He earned a doctorate in Speech Communications from UCLA in Los Angeles.

He began his teaching career at Holy Cross School, New Orleans. Then he taught at Catholic Central High School, Monroe, Michigan, (1949-1952.) His next assignment was teaching English at Vincentian Institute, Albany, New York, (1952-1954.) He spent twenty-four years at Notre Dame High School, Sherman Oaks, California, where forensics became his signature activity. He became a "double-diamond" coach in the National Forensic League. From 1974-1978, he served as the superior of the local religious community.

At age fifty-seven, John retired from high school teaching. He was accepted as an adjunct faculty in Speech at the University of Note Dame, where he also served as Director of Forensics and Assistant Director of Pangborn Hall (1978-1984.) For the next dozen years, (1985-1997) he launched a new venture. He became an instructor aboard various ships of the US Navy in the Program for Afloat College Education (PACE.)

At age seventy-six, he retired from teaching altogether. He became director of the Holy Cross community at Notre Dame High School, Sherman Oaks, California. He only accepted the role on a year-by-year basis, saying modestly, "If the brothers will have me," but he served them well, holding meaningful house meetings, promoting vocations and hosting guests. In 2003, he returned to the University of Notre Dame as a resident of Columba Hall. He maintained a regular routine of tennis and swimming, and enjoyed the various athletic, cultural and Holy Cross community events.

In 2016, in his mid-90s, Brother John accepted assignment to Brother Vincent Pieau Residence in Austin, Texas, where he had the support of assisted living. At least as much of it as his fierce independence would allow. He preferred to amble without cane or walker, until he broke his hip in a fall. Seemingly in bad shape, after surgery, he was put on hospice care, until he found out about it. He rejected hospice and set a date for himself to be walking again. He only missed that deadline by a few weeks before he was back on his feet. Only in his last week alive, did he finally voluntarily ask to be put on hospice care since he did not want to be hospitalized.

Brother John often spent time in chapel and was a faithful participant in community prayer. The last week we prayed the Our Father with in him at Office or Mass, he emphasized over and over again, "your kingdom come, YOUR will be done." His prayer was answered on the morning of February 10, 2019. A Memorial Prayer Service was held on Friday evening, February 15, 2019 at 7:00 p.m. The Mass of Christian Burial was be celebrated Saturday morning, February 16, 2019 at 10:30 a.m. Internment was be at Assumption Cemetery.

Brother John contributed two papers to the Holy Cross History Conferences. At the 2013 conference at the Cenacle in New Orleans, he presented, "Emundus" about Brother Edmund Hunt, the first Brother President of St. Edward's University, Austin, Texas. In 2015 at Stonehill College, North Easton, Massachusetts, he presented, "Reflections on the Life of Brother Gerald (Alfonso) Comeau."

Sister Graziella Lalande died on October 22, 2018 at the age of 106. She was a Holy Cross Sister for seventy-eight years. She was born on September 28, 1912, in Nomingue, in the Laurentian Mountains, the eldest child of a large family. In 1933, when her mother died, she became like a “mother” to her younger siblings.

She was sharp, energetic and witty. Sister Graziella entered Holy Cross in 1940. For many years she was a professor of French Literature at College Basile Moreau in Montreal, sponsored and administered by the sisters. Her ministries in Holy Cross have also included many years in formation and administration.

Even with her professional accomplishments, when Graziella’s name is mentioned in Holy Cross, it is most associated with her study of and writings on Basil Moreau. She was one of the premier Moreau scholars in Holy Cross.

She was the first to explore Moreau’s spirituality and teaching through the lens of education. As a professional educator herself, she recognized the significance of what Father Moreau had to say about the type of pedagogy necessary for Holy Cross to have an impact on the complexities of the education in 19th-century France.

She authored many booklets on Various Moreau themes. Her book, Like a Mighty Tree, is well known. Her latest work was Who Are You, Basile Moreau?

In 1989 at Stonehill College, she presented a paper, “Mother Mary of the Seven Dolours a Moreau Collaborator”. She presented a paper on “Mother M. Leonie Paradis, Daughter of Father Moreau”, in 1990 in New Orleans. In 1991 at Holy Cross College in South Bend, she presented a paper, “Sisters of Holy Cross: Founded in France and Canada”. She presented a paper, “Mother Mary of St. Basil, the first Canadian Superior General” at L’Ermitage Sainte-Croix, in 1994. In 1997 at Notre Dame College in Manchester, New Hampshire, she gave a paper, “Relations Between Fathers, Brothers and Sisters in Canada”.

Her wake was held on October 28, 2018. Her funeral was celebrated on October 29, 2018 at St. Joseph Pavilion.
